904 The public hearings shall be conducted by the president of the Commission, who may establish the rules for presentation of evidence including establishing time limits for speakers. It shall be the duty of the Commission to accept evidence which is non-repetitive in nature, without regard to the formal rules of evidence controlling trial courts in the State of Indiana.

905 In the presentation of a case, the burden shall be upon the petitioner to supply all information, including charts, diagrams, and other exhibits necessary for a clear understanding of the problem. The Commission may continue the hearing when in its judgment the petitioner has not provided sufficient evidence on which to make a determination.

ARTICLE X Final Disposition of Zone Map Amendment Cases

1001 The final disposition of any case shall be in the form of a recommendation setting forth the findings and determinations of the Commission, together with any modification, specification or limitation which it makes.

1002 The Commission may dismiss a case for lack of prosecution or lack of jurisdiction. When a petitioner has failed to appear at two (2) consecutive meetings, the case may be dismissed for lack of prosecution.

1003 Following the publication of notice for any public hearing, until the conclusion of the hearing, a petitioner may not withdraw the matter to come before the public hearing without the permission of the Commission.

1004 A case that has been withdrawn by the petitioner shall not be placed on the docket for consideration within a period of six (6) months after the date of withdrawal. The Commission, at its discretion, may suspend this rule on a case by case basis with a 2/3 majority vote.

1005 When considering an amendment to the zoning map, the Plan Commission may require or allow the petitioner to submit written commitments, as specified in IC 36-7-4-615, which restrict the use(s) of the proposed zoning district.

- 1. Initial Rezoning - Written commitments may be initiated by the Plan Commission, the petitioner, or by the County Commissioners.

- a. In approving written commitments for developmental standards, the Commissioners may stipulate that the Plan Commission without the Commissioner's consent may not modify such commitments. In making the stipulation, the Commissioners shall be deemed to be modifying the written commitments.
- b. If the Commissioners wish to initiate or modify the written commitments recommended by the Plan Commission, the Commissioners shall refer the new commitments or modifications to the Plan Commission for consideration. The Commissioners or commission may require notice and a public hearing if either body regards such notice and hearing to be needed to afford adequate opportunity for public input.
- c. After considering the new or modified conditions, the Plan Commission must agree or disagree with the Commissioner's action.
- d. If the Plan Commission agrees with the new or modified commitments, they take effect immediately.
- e. If the Plan Commission disagrees with the new or modified commitments, the commission shall forward them to the Commissioners with the reasons for disagreement. The commitments shall take effect only if the Commissioners again vote to require said modified commitments.

- 1006 Modifications or termination of commitments after initial zoning - The Plan Commission may modify or terminate written commitments relating to the development standards after notice is provided in accordance with the commissions rules of procedure. The modification may be initiated by the owner of the property, by the commission, or by the Commissioners. The commitments to be modified are subject to the Commissioners stipulation included in Section 1005(1)(a). In such a case such modification must be certified to the County Commissioners for review and approval. The Plan Commission per year can approve only one modification to the written commitments.
- 1007 Modifications or termination of commitments involving permitted uses may be allowed only through the same procedure as the initial rezoning. In approving, modifying, or terminating commitments, the Commission shall consider the factors listed in Section 12.2(F) of the Fulton County Zoning Ordinance.
- 1008 The written commitments shall be recorded in accordance with the I.C. 36-7-4-615. Recorded commitments are binding on the owner of the parcel, a subsequent owner of a parcel, and any person who acquires an interest in the parcel. An ordinance amending the zoning map, which includes written commitments, shall not be effective until the commitments are recorded. After the ordinance is adopted and the commitments are recorded, the zoning map shall be amended to indicate the new district designation with the letter "C" appended to indicate that commitments accompany the district designation. The commitments must be recorded within 90 days after the Commissioners adopt the amendment, unless the Plan Commission grants an extension. In the event the commitments are not recorded within the specified time, the ordinance shall not take effect and shall be considered null and void.
- 1009 A zoning compliance certificate shall not be issued for any property subject to written commitments unless the use and/or development on the property comply with the recorded written commitments.

- 1010 Any violations associated with written commitments are subject to the standards prescribed by the Fulton County Zoning Ordinance.
- 1011 A case that has been decided adversely to the petitioner shall not be placed on the docket for consideration within a period of twelve (12) months after the date of the decision previously rendered
- 1012 Because the Commission's recommendation is only advisory, the petitioner may request that the adverse recommendation be brought before the Fulton County Commissioner's for their consideration. The Commission's recommendation, either favorable or adverse, may be overturned by the Fulton County Commissioner's under IC 36-7-4-609.

ARTICLE XI Reconsideration

This one year moratorium for reconsideration of a petition to amend the zoning map commences on the day the initial petition is filed with the Plan Commission Office and is effective for any petitions filed after July 14, 1999.

ARTICLE XII Final Disposition of Primary Plat Approval Cases

- 1201 The final disposition of any case shall be in the form of an approval, approval with conditions, continuance, or denial.
- 1202 The Commission may dismiss a case for lack of prosecution or lack of jurisdiction. When a petitioner has failed to appear at two (2) consecutive meetings, the case may be dismissed for lack of prosecution.
- 1203 Following the publication of notice for any public hearing, until the conclusion of the hearing, a petitioner may not withdraw the matter to come before the public hearing without the permission of the Commission.
- 1204 A case that has been withdrawn by the petitioner shall not be placed on the docket for consideration within a period of six (6) months after the date of withdrawal. The Commission, at its discretion, may suspend this rule on a case by case basis with a 2/3 majority vote.
- 1205 A case that has been decided adversely to the petitioner shall not be placed on the docket for consideration within a period of twelve (12) months after the date of the decision previously rendered.
